CHORAL SOCIETY PLEASES IN CONCERT

Honolulu's latest musical organization, the Honolulu Choral Society, is distinctly an acquisition to musical achievement here. Such was the verdict of critics and near-critics alike who heard the opening concert at Bishop Hall, Punahou, last Friday night.

The large and well-balanced chorus, naturally, is the chief point of interest as the new society is primarily an organization of vocalists. As such, it promises to take high rank here and the first concert revealed no small ability.

Director Reginald H. Carter has a large body of good voices to work with an additional advantage is the presence of several singers who have had considerable thorough technical training. The tenor section struck the critics on Friday night as lacking in strength, perhaps because of lack of numbers. The lower male voices are strong and the sopranos showed up well. Director Carter confined his numbers very largely to ensembles in which the accent was strongly on concerted harmony and the section singing was infrequent, and the chorus gives evidence of being able to essay more ambitious compositions with a little more work.

The soloists on Saturday night were all familiar to Honoluluans, though Mrs. Robbins B. Anderson, the who has a warm and vigorous mezzo-soprano, has not made so many public appearances as Mrs. A. B. Ingham, violinist, or Mr. Reynolds B. McGrew, baritone. Mrs. Tenney Peck's accompanying gave its usual satisfaction and aided not a little in the success of the evening. All of the soloists were cordially received and achieved individual successes.

The Choral Society's next appearance will be looked forward to with much interest, and if an orchestral accompaniment could be arranged, the result ought to be remarkably good.

Y. W. C. A. GIRLS WILL CELEBRATE BIRTHDAYS ENSEMBLE TONIGHT

A novel entertainment in the way of a banquet for the girls residing at the Young Women's Christian Association Homestead who have birthdays during May is being planned to take place at the home on King street this evening at a quarter-past six o'clock.

Arrangements for the affair are in charge of Miss Estelle Barnes, association economical secretary, and aside from being complimentary to the several girls whose birthdays fall this month, will be in honor of Miss Bertha Wirtz, who has recently been added to the association's forces as Homestead secretary. Following the banquet there will be a concert by the Homestead orchestra and an old-fashioned spelling bee with Mrs. Harmon Rendricks as teacher. The girls in whose honor the affair is to be given are Miss Mildred Gibson, Miss Marion Brown and Miss Blanchard.

The state of Wisconsin has approved $75,000 for a state building at the San Francisco exposition.

A LITTLE SERMON FOR A QUITTER

By the time these lines are read, a New York audience will have listened to a lecture by Helen Keller. Miss Keller is a splendidly accomplished woman, well versed in arts and sciences, imbued with the highest culture of the greatest universities—learned, able, brilliant—fluent alike with tongue and pen.

Of course, in a period of general education, this tribute could be easily applied to thousands of women, except for the slight fact that Helen Keller was stricken deaf, dumb and blind in infancy. Which being the case, you great hulking full-nerved, five-sensed, healthy male of a man, sit down and figure out some excuse for your inability to make good.

You're nailed fast. You alone are to blame for your present situation or lack of one.

Now, even you will grant that you never have truly tried. Oh, you may have spurred every now and then, but you deluded yourself when you thought you'd put all your heart and soul into the effort. At last here's proof that you are just a plain quitter.

If a one-legged man got the best of you in a hundred-yard dash you wouldn't have the nerve to say that you ran a good race.

Here's a woman who began without sight, hearing or speech and she has made more of and for herself with the two senses of touch and smell than you have achieved with all the endowments that God gave Alexander the Great, Achilles, Plato, Julius Caesar, Sir Isaac Newton, Michael Angelo, Napoleon Bonaparte, Robert Fulton, Abraham Lincoln and Thomas Edison.

With the left hand of Fame resting upon their tablets and her right poised above the head of Helen Keller, take another look at yourself—drop that bushel basket in which you have been trying to measure yourself and curl up in your wife's lap. —Herbert Kaufman in Woman's World for May.

Mainland Market Firm
The arrival in San Francisco the first of last week of 2,133 bunches of bananas and 234 cases of pineapples did not lower the market. The demand was brisk for them and the price good. The following are the quotations given that day on bananas and pines: Bananas—Hawaiian, $1.25@1.26 a bunch; Central American, 2½¢@4¢ per lb. Pineapples—Hawaiian, per dozen, $2.50@3.50.

Robert C. Archer, a former alderman of New Rochelle, N. Y., and who grew the largest strawberries in the county, is dead.

LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL, GLOSSY HAIR, NO DANDRUFF, 25 CENT "DANDERINE"

Hair Coming Out?—If Dry, Brittle, Thin or Your Scalp Itches and Is Full of Dandruff—Use "Danderine"

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of Dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp. A little Danderine will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove to yourself tonight—now—that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine—advertisment.

ALICE TEDDY CARRIES INSURANCE POLICY THAT AMOUNTS TO $20,000

Miss Dorian Grey, a clever comedienne, who will open an engagement at the Bijou theater this evening, is a character sketch artist and singer said to possess few equals. She introduces many new and beautiful costumes.

When the average business or professional man provides for the future of his family to the extent of carrying insurance to the amount of $20,000 on his life, he rests in the security that he has at least done something along substantial lines for posterity and those who may depend upon him.

This amount risked upon the life and death of a man, however, excites but little comment these days.

But to place this sum of money on a brown bear is quite another matter. George Cropsey, owner of Alice Teddy, the highly educated and intelligent Oregon bruiser, just turning five years old, closed a deal Saturday whereby he renews an insurance policy in Lloyds, to the amount of $20,000, now carried for some months on the clever bear. The policy goes on record as a novelty in insurance circles. The figure is said to exceed that carried on any trained animal of its species in the amusement world today.

Miss Alice Teddy received thousands of Honolulu children Saturday afternoon. The management of the Bijou have arranged for another week for this funny and highly trained animal. Wrestling stunts will be a feature of the new program arranged for the first part of the week. George McLeod, champion lightweight and wrestling instructor of the Western Club at San Francisco reached the city a few days ago. He posted a forfeit of $100 that he will throw the bear in ten minutes, catch-as-catch-can. Manager McGreer has accepted the challenge in behalf of the owners of the animal.

Dorian Grey, a musical comedienne of rare ability, in character songs, and fresh from a series of successes on mainland vaudeville circuits, is to open an engagement at the Bijou commencing this evening. Miss Grey is rated as one of the best quick change artists in the business. Many of her songs are specially composed for this act. The turn throughout, it is predicted, will afford a rare novelty to local theatergoers. She possesses a wealth of beautiful and many expensive costumes.

Bijou patrons will have no reason to complain of a lack of variety on the new bill which opens with this evening's performance. "Fun on Joy Street" is the merry vehicle in which Bert Wiggin will hold the attention and carry an audience through a round of joyousness. Wiggin is assisted in his act by the introduction of new and startling mechanical devices. From start to finish the turn is one bubbling with good wholesome comedy. Wiggin will introduce new juggling stunts and has several late songs to offer.

Billy Reeves met with such success during the brief engagement that Manager McGreer finally induced this world famous comedian to remain over for a few days. Reeves will be seen in new specialties at the Bijou. His act will be materially changed.

The new first run pictures now thrown on the Bijou screen appeal to local people.

PACHECO MAKES ATTACK ON PAVING

Charging that the city is building streets so badly that one side is going to pieces before the other is completed, Supervisor Pacheco threw another verbal bombshell into the meeting of the board last Saturday, directing his remarks at the road committee.

Pacheco made the charge that the new piece of street-paving being done on King street opposite the Palama fire station is already going to pieces on the upper side, with the work still in progress on the lower side.

"This work is being done under the road committee of the board," said Pacheco. "It is poor work and the taxpayers ought not to have to stand for it."

Pacheco also took up the cudgel and flagellated the road department's office work. He declared that after J. J. Dias had been fired as chief clerk, Sol Meheula had been put in Dias' place at $125 a month—$15 more than Dias was getting, and that George Low, who has been Meheula's assistant, had been promoted to the place left vacant by Meheula, also at $125 a month. Pacheco declared that the city engineer had not informed the board of the changes and wanted to know why.

Furthermore, Pacheco said that the new bitulithic paving on King street between Nuuanu and Bethel had not been properly laid, claiming that it sags in the center and that water and refuse collects in the depression. He said the attention of the bitulithic paving company was called to the alleged defects, but that nothing was done.

IN MOTHER'S MEDICINE CHEST

are standard remedies which have stood the test of time—remedies which their mothers and grandmothers had used before them, such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for nearly forty years has been curing the women of this country from the worst form of female ills; merit alone could have stood such a test of time and won such an enviable record—advertisement.

TALK OF WAR IS SCOFFED AT BY CONSUL

While more than 500 Japanese listened, Consul-General H. Etaki of Japan spoke on the harmony of nations at the Peace Day ceremonies in the Makiki Japanese church Sunday evening.

"Let there be no talk of war," he said. "It is unfounded. In this day with the close treaty relations between nations, with The Hague to which we may bring our disputes for settlement, there is no reason why one country should war on another." Rev. T. Okumura, pastor of the church, who presided during the meeting, spoke on the same subject, as did Professor M. M. Scott.

OPIUM RAID PRODUCED WINE

A delegation of police officers descended upon the notorious Camp No. 2 yesterday with the result that in dropping into a room occupied by a Chinese, they found that individual hitting the seductive pipe. The Chinese was placed under arrest with a charge of using the contraband drug placed against his name. In making a thorough search of the apartment, Special License Officer Fennell, who was a member of the police party, discovered a dozen square-frames filled with wine. Further investigation brought to light a quantity of empty bottles. The officers left the premises with the belief that a very prosperous blind pig had been aided.

Judge Monsarrat passed judgment upon Wong Chong, the defendant Chinese, at this morning's session of police court, imposing a fine of $50 and costs, as a penalty for smoking the opium. The charge of keeping and disposing of liquor without a license will come up at a later date.

SPIRITED MEETING OF SUPERVISORS EXPECTED TOMORROW EVENING

The meeting of the supervisors to be held tomorrow evening may be the occasion of a warm discussion on the proposed transfer of the water and sewer systems from the territory to the city and county. The resolution calling for a thorough examination of the condition of the Nuuanu reservoir and dam will be introduced at that time, it is expected, as well as a supplementary one providing for an examination of the financial condition of the two systems.

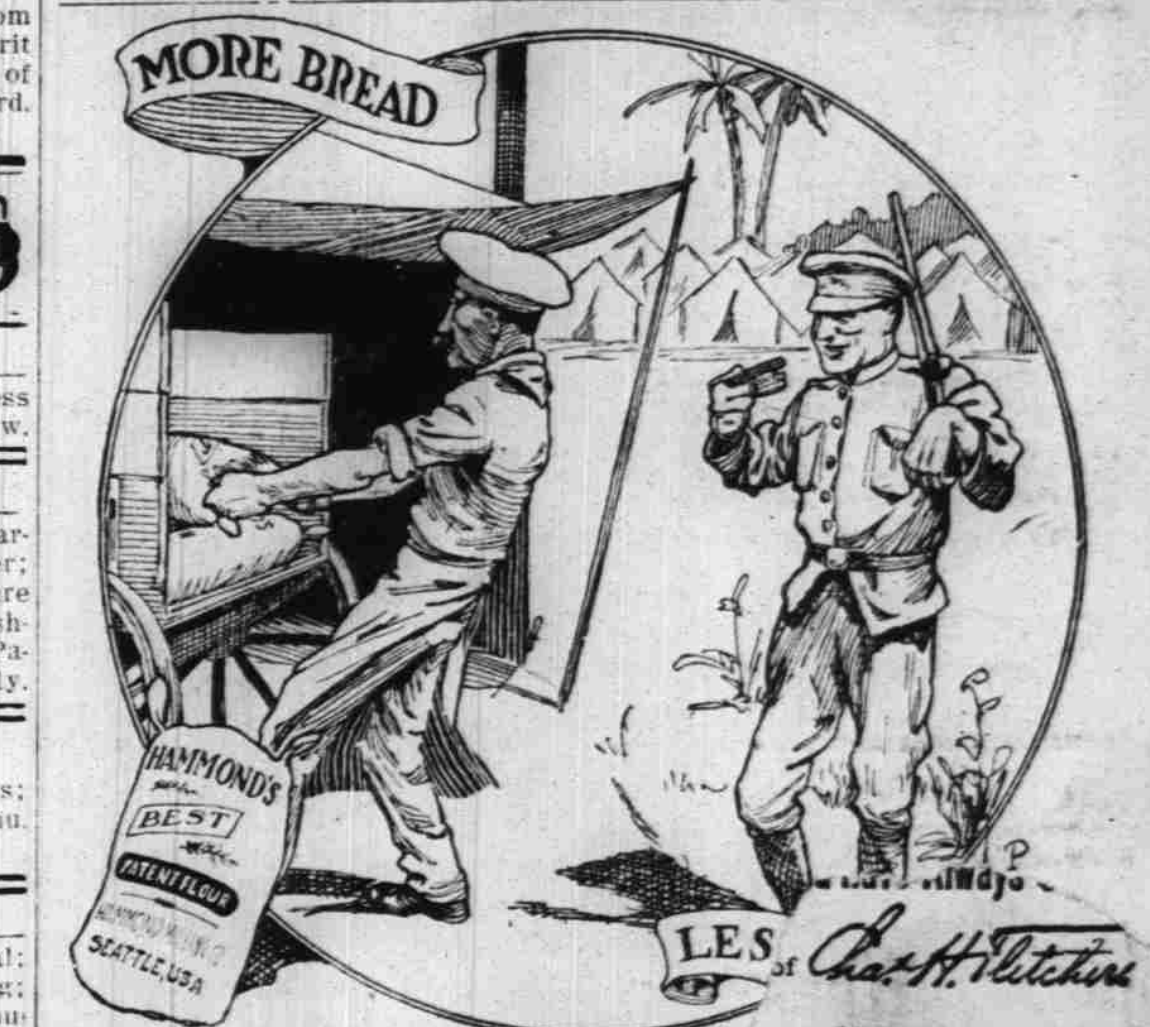

These matters were not touched on at the Saturday meeting, as only routine business was disposed of. William Barnett was denied a permit to hold a tent show on Nuuanu avenue and Hotel street, after a spirited debate. The navy department was granted the privilege to extend its pipe line at Puuloa to the naval reservation at Pearl Harbor.
